- Celebrate the rich experiences of your life
- Learn playwriting techniques
- See your writing performed by professional actors

Bring your journaling to life in this group workshop series for beginning playwrights, ages 55 and up. Playwrights Project Founder Deborah Salzer guides the process. Learn playwriting techniques, as you write short plays depicting moments from your life. Sessions involve 6 90-minute instructional sessions, and 1 90-minute performance with professional actors reading short scripts created in the sessions. Up to 12 participants. No playwriting experience necessary.
